12th November 2017
32nd Sunday of the Year.

November, the Month of Remembrance

And so the Autumn makes itself known in so many ways.

The trees shedding their leaves

The multicoloured dead leaves lying on our footpaths

The shorter days and longer evenings.

Light gives way to shadow and darkness

And we are reminded in a powerful way of our loved ones who have died.

November is a month with its own energy:

It instills in us the gift of remembering those who have gone before us

We remember them and honour their memory.

We give thanks for them and the gifts they have passed on

Gifts of integrity, simplicity, peace and above all faith:

Their faith in God and their faith in humanity.

May the absence of the one we have loved bring us healing

And may they bless us with a healing heart so that we are gifted and blessed to love and care for each other.

Kilmainham/Inchicore Musical Society

A huge thank you to all involved in this years production of Anything Goes, especially to our sponsors, the cast, the production team, the committee, the back stage team, the costume and props people, front of house, the BERA committee for use of hall and Fr. Louis for use of the De Mazenod Centre... All worked together to put in a huge team and community effort to bring Cole Porter's Anything Goes alive in Inchicore. A big thank you to all the parishioners who came to see the show. We couldn't do this each year without your support. We hope you enjoyed sailing with us! Mikey PRO

‘De-lightful, de-lovely – CONGRATULATIONS KIMS on a terrific show: A string of popular song and dance numbers with outstanding performances all round. Gangsters, dodgy pastors, and tap-dancing sailors, now where else in Inchicore would you get the like!

Phyllis McGuirk R.I.P.

A lover of people and place, Phyllis was at the very heart of community life down the years, giving generously of her many talents in building up our parish/community. For those of us whose lives Phyllis touched, we remember her with much love and gratitude.

*As well as her own family, Phyllis mothered everyone around her and gave so much love
She instilled a confidence in us, assuring us all we were a cut above.*

*We didn't age in her eyes, she called us her girls, wherever we'd go
She wore rose coloured glasses therefore our wrinkles didn't show.*

*She nurtured friendships in such a caring way
'Let people know you care before it's too late' she would always say.*

*A lady born before her time, with talents galore
Always game to try something new, or to explore.*

*If one of us met with sadness, she'd call around with a sympathetic letter or poem
On happy occasions she'd arrive with a joyous verse to our home.*

Because of this Phyllis will never leave us, for each of us will just have to look

And we'll find one of her treasured letters or verses in our scrapbook.

A Seasonal treat

A parishioner and his family are visiting Santa's Steam Train in Belfast on Saturday, 9th December. They have 2 extra tickets and very generously have offered to take along another parent and child, who otherwise wouldn't have such an opportunity. If you know of someone who would love this special treat, let Oisín know on 087 9477841.
