Feast of the Holy Trinity

This Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity,
God in three different forms of expression.

God is Father, Son and Spirit

*The Sacred Three, my fortress be, encircling me.
Come and be round my hearth and my home.*

Richmond Barracks: June lecture

The 1918 General Election” - Monday 11th June at 11am

Lecturer: Cormac Moore,

Dublin City Libraries Historian-in-Residence.

A look back at one of the most consequential general elections in Irish history, held just after the First World War had ended in December 1918. The franchise had increased dramatically, giving some women the right to vote for the first time.

2nd June : Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ

The feast of Corpus Christi is a celebration of God's presence in the gift of Bread & Wine.

*Be gentle, when you touch bread. Let it not be uncared for, unwanted.
So often bread is taken for granted. There is so much beauty in bread.*

Beauty of sun and soil, Beauty of patient toil.

Winds and rain have caressed it,

Christ often blessed it;

Be gentle when you touch bread.

We pray that these children will continue to grow in their faith, supported by family, community & school.

Acknowledgment

John Kenny R.I.P.

I would like to extend on behalf of the Kenny family, our appreciation and thanks to all in St Michael's Parish family who supported us at the time of John's death. A Mass of thanksgiving will be offered for your intentions.

Vera Kenny

Our thoughts are with Vera and family at this time. John was a life-affirming force in our parish community giving joyfully of his varied talents. We remember John with gratitude and great affection, thankful for his commitment & long dedication to the life of our community. May he rest peacefully.

Pray for

Eva Breen, O'Leary Road
May she Rest in Peace

Nature is the key to the human vision of God. In all its variety, all its beauty lie two things: the understanding of the greatness of God and the bridge that can bring us to value and be in awe of one another.

Welcome in Baptism

European Data Protection Law

A new European data protection law, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is now in place. This new law applies to any organisation, including our parish that manages and processes people's personal information. We are now working on ways of ensuring that what we do with your information is compliant with this new law. It is a work in progress and over the next few months we will keep you informed as policies are put in place.

Bulfin Ladies Club

All the stops were pulled out this week for the Bulfin Ladies 50th birthday bash. The local Hilton was the venue for a glitzy evening of celebration, reminiscence and gratitude for the friendship and solidarity shared down the years. Past members were recalled fondly with special mention for founding member Phyllis McGuirk, who sadly died late last year.

And judging by the enthusiasm and energy all round, it could be that we're only getting started.!

Summer Camp July 29th-August 3rd

This year, why not give your child a summer holiday with a difference. Young people from England, Scotland & Wales, aged 12-14, will come together for 5 days of outdoor activities & teambuilding. The camp will take place in Lilliput OEC, near Mullingar. Staff are fully trained and Garda Vetted. For more information, Contact 0877723255 or padraig.oblate.partners@gmail.com

Pastoral Area Newsletter

The company (LPI) that have printed the recent Pastoral Area newsletters is closing down next month. There will be two more pastoral area newsletters, for the months of June & July. Following this, we will revert to our fortnightly parish newsletter.
